

Form A.6

[Subsection 21.3 of The Builders' Lien Act]

Notice of Adjudication

TO:
FROM:

TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to The Builders' Lien Act the following dispute is referred to the Authority for adjudication:

(Check whichever is applicable)

- A. Non-payment of proper invoice by owner to contractor, described below; or
- B. Non-payment of proper invoice by contractor to subcontractor described below; or
- C. Non-payment of proper invoice by subcontractor to subcontractor, described below; or
- D. Other – see subsection 21.21(1) of the Act.

(Description of the contract or subcontract and details of services of materials provided)

(Describe here the dispute to be referred, including details respecting how and when it arose)

(Nature of redress sought)

Form A.6 Notice of Adjudication

Owner's name and address:
Contractor's name and address:
Subcontractor's name and address:
Name of proposed adjudicator (if any) :

Date

Signature of person making request

Email Address for service of person making request

Notice of Adjudication - SCDRO Filing Requirement

In accordance with the BLA Regulations (5.51(3)), any party who gives notice of adjudication pursuant to subsection 21.3(1) of the Act must provide a copy of the notice to the Saskatchewan Construction Dispute Resolution Office (SCDRO) within 1 day of giving that notice.

The notice must be submitted in electronic format to authority@scdro.ca. Please be aware that the SCDRO requires the payment of a filing fee and the submission of your contact information to proceed with the adjudication process.